

Preliminary Programme

Draft Version April 17

Stream: Digitalization of Society
Stream: Sustainable and Innovative Public Procurement & Ecodesign
Stream: Towards Low-Carbon Energy and Mobility Systems
Stream: Gender - Technology - Environment
Stream: Teaching STS
Stream: Life Sciences - Biotechnology
Stream: Science and Society Relationships revisited

Monday, 6th of May
08:00 onwards	Registration
09:00-	Welcome Note - Room Styria: GETZINGER, Günter, Science, Technology and Society Unit, TU Graz
09:15 - 10:00	Keynote 1 - Room Styria: Back to the Future. Why we did, why we do and why we shall do TA, Helge TORGERSEN - ITA/OEAW, Vienna Chair: SPÖK, Armin, Science, Technology and Society Unit, TU Graz
	Room Riverside	Room Nikolai	Room Galerie	Room Atrium	Room Styria	Room Deep Purple
10:15 - 11:45	S2 (1): The politics of algorithmic governance. Data power and data privacy Chair: EYERT, Florian, IRGMAIER, Florian, REHAK, Rainer	S27 (1): Valuation and epistemic practices Chair: ASDAL, Kristin, FOCHLER, Maximilian	S23: Teaching STS: building the knowledge basis Chair: WIESER, Bernhard	S7 (1): Humans &amp; machines in healthcare contexts: interdisciplinary perspectives Chair: BRUCKSCH, Susanne, GRÜNEBERG, Patrick	S31: Intersectionality in research - celebrating equality and diversity Chair: ERNST, Waltraud	S5: Technology and the promise of decentralization Chair: SCHRAPE, Jan-Felix
	Identity without agency? How algorithmic authorities strain autonomy and informational self-determination STRAUSS, Stefan Creating postulated consumers? 10:15 - 11:45	S12: Towards a second stage of energy transition? Socio-technical dimension of sector coupling  Chair: KEMMERZELL, Jörg, NEUKIRCH, Mario	S27 (4): Valuing Food, Environment & Health  Chair: ASDAL, Kristin, FOCHLER, Maximilian	S3 (1): Socio-technical challenges of health technologies  Chair: OLOFSSON, Jennie, MALI, Franc	S19 (1): It's time for structural change, sister!  Chair: DAHMEN-ADKINS, Jennifer, RATZER, Brigitte, WROBLEWSKI, Angela, THALER, Anita	S25: Genome editing: revolution or another incremental step in the life sciences?  Chair: LANG, Alexander, SPÖK, Armin	S10: Food water energy nexus and sustainable urban governance  Chair: GOSZCZYNSKI, Wojciech, WRÓBLEWSKI, Michał
	The governance of sector coupling. Challenges of inventing the second phase of the German "Energiewende" KEMMERZELL, Jörg  Observing converging infrastructures BÜSCHER, Christian  Analysing expert networks in the climate-, energy-, mobility- and consumer-nexus HAUS Juliane  Energy transition without Societal Change? The blind spot of the current Debate on "Sector Coupling" NEUKIRCH, Mario  Reframe a highly contested concept: Germany's Energiewende between technocratic reform and societal revolution MARQUARDT, Jens	What a difference a date makes – value, knowledge and the expiration date of food PLASIL, Tanja  Seeing like a startup: How field knowledge is produced at the site of an agricultural high-tech company HEIMSTÄDT, Cornelius  The freedom to choose between regimes of valuation – does it exist? BLEICHER, Alena  Re-valuations of forests in times of climate change: Practices, technologies and (missing) knowledge SCHUMACHER, Juliane  The cut-off problem: epistemic controversy and the justification of healthcare rationing HAUGE, Amalie Martinus	The location of health in the digital knowledge Landscapes GAJOVIC, Srecko  General data protection regulation in healthcare: a revolution for patients, clinicians and technologies BELLA, Giampaolo  Code your own pancreas: technology assessment and sociological perspectives on the visions of do-it-yourself artificial pancreas systems in type 1 diabetes therapy JANSKY, Bianca, WOLL Silvia  Impact of online health communities on transformation of doctor-patient relationship ATANASOVA, Sara	What we actually mean by „co-producing gender equality knowledge together“ DAHMEN-ADKINS, Jennifer, KARNER, Sandra  Gender- and Diversity-Trainings in academia: difficulties and potentials HORVATH, Lisa, BLACKMORE, Sabine  Building gender equality through communities of practice: how to structure the CoPs and to evaluate outcomes? GODFROY, Anne-Sophie  Mapping activities and needs of GE-practitioners: First results of the ACT community mapping survey on GEP Activities in the EU 28 REIDL, Sybille  Community of practice – a key factor of a reflexive gender equality policy. First experiences of TARGET WROBLEWSKI, Angela	Biohacking as possible playground for genome editing DERNDORFER, Daniel, PÖCHLAUER, Caroline  Ethical and technical challenges in genome editing: A qualitative study with researchers RAMOS, Pedro  Gene drive - a game changing technology? HAMMER, Caroline SPÖK, Armin  In hope for ignorance? A popitzean assessment of the current regulation of genome editing in EU agriculture DAYÉ, Christian	SUNEX approach for addressing the FWE-nexus and its proposed policy guidelines to support sustainable urban governance HAINOUN, Ali  The importance of nexus approach to water-energy-food security for transitional and resource-rich countries KARATAYEV, Marat  FWE nexus in three cities. A governance analysis GOSZCZYŃSKI, Wojciech, LABORGNE, Pia, SUCHOMSKA, Joanna, WRÓBLEWSKI, Michał  Designing for multi-stakeholder analysis of trade-offs in water-energy-food nexus. KOROLEVA, Ksenia

12:15 - 13:45	Lunch Break: Reception by the Mayor of Graz, Mag. Siegfried Nagl, City Hall, Hauptplatz 1, 8010 Graz
14:00 - 14:50	Poster Session
	BRUDERMANN, Thomas	Energy in the global south: Green or grey transition?
	DERNDORFER, Daniel	Open bioLab Graz Austria - The local Biohackspace
	FINKBEINER, Timo	Evaluation project STEM-3D-printing aspects and considerations on the development of an evaluation design
	FOSTER, Gillian	Circular economy strategies for adaptive reuse of cultural heritage buildings to reduce environmental impacts
	KOSHIM, Asima, KARATAYEV, Marat	Bioenergy in Kazakhstan in a water-land-energy nexus perspective
	KRAWUTSCHKE, Matthias	CfP: Applying artificial intelligence on vulnerable target groups: chances and challenges
	LOPEZ, Paola	Algorithmic Bias. The reinforcement of intersectional discrimination via "algorithms", illustrated by the example of the "Labour Market Opportunity Model" ("Arbeitsmarkt-Chancen-Modell") of the AMS in Austria.
	ORLOWSKI, Alexander	Autonomous driving: safety, but only for the western Hemisphere
